Welcome to the University of Iowa!
This self-guided tour will direct you around our campus while focusing on the undergraduate buildings mainly located on the east side of the Iowa River. As you explore, refer to this handout for information about each building’s history and use. Feel free to explore the public areas of any building that interests you to check out the amenities and services described.

1. East Campus Housing
We have five residence halls on the east side of campus. Each hall includes high speed internet, laundry facilities and access to Iowa’s Cambus transportation system. Burge Hall holds one of our two main dining facilities and a convenience store for students to utilize.
   a. Daum
   b. Burge
   c. Currier
   d. Stanley
   e. Mayflower

2. Pomerantz Center, 2005
This building houses a number of different offices including the Office of Admissions, Academic Advising, the Career Center and our Executive MBA program. There are also classrooms and an auditorium.

3. Pappajohn Business Building, 1993
All business courses are located in this building along with the John Pappajohn Entrepreneurial Center, classrooms, faculty offices and Pat’s Diner.

4. The Pentacrest
Made up of five different buildings including Iowa’s Old Capitol. This is really what the University of Iowa considers the heart of campus. The other four buildings include Jessup, Macbride, Schaeffer and MacLean Hall, which include classrooms, lecture halls and faculty and staff offices.

5. Phillips Hall, 1965
Our Center for Diversity and Enrichment office along with our Language Media Center live here.

6. Biology Building, 1905
Although built in 1905 it was renovated in 2004 to accommodate our student population’s growing interest in the field and to upgrade our laboratories, classrooms and offices.

7. Seashore Hall, 1899
Our Psychology and Sociology Departments are housed in this building along with the Iowa Summer Writing Festival and a few other departments.

8. Downtown Iowa City
With over 70 different restaurants and coffee shops, there’s always a place for students to hang out off campus that is very accessible. Iowa City is also known for hosting a wide range of festivals, concert series and movie nights. It’s no wonder this city was ranked by the American Institute for Economic Research as one of the top five college towns in America!

9. Seamans Center for the Engineering Arts and Sciences, 1905
This building encompasses all six of our engineering majors, classrooms, and faculty offices and has its very own engineering library.

10. Lindquist Center, 1972
The College of Education is located here. This building was named after Professor Lindquist who developed the Iowa Test series as well as the electronic scoring matching that made the test possible. The Lindquist Center also houses our REACH (Realizing Educational and Career Hopes) program developed for students with intellectual, cognitive and learning disabilities.

11. Campus Recreation and Wellness Center, 2010
This impressive building has 20,000 square feet and three levels of exercise equipment, an olympic-sized swimming pool and diving well, steam room, spa and a smoothie café! It’s no surprise that this building has earned awards from multiple sources!

12. Main Library, 1951
The new Learning Commons is housed on the first floor and is open 24 hours a day, Sunday-Thursday during the academic year. It is a 37,000 square-foot, tech-infused, study space for our students. There are 18 group study rooms designed for collaboration and a newly remodeled “Food for Thought” café to keep your energy up during those intense study sessions.

13. Adler Journalism and Mass Communication Building, 2005
You will find the School of Journalism and Mass Communication, the Daily Iowan (Iowa’s student newspaper), the Iowa High School Press Association and the Quill and Scroll Society located here. Classrooms, offices and a lecture hall are also utilized.

14. Hubbard Park
This park is utilized for skills classes, club sports practices, intramural games or just to study outside while the weather is nice. Concerts, festivals and homecoming events have also taken place in this beautiful space.

15. Iowa Memorial Union, 1925
This building is the home to the Center for Student Involvement and Leadership, Iowa House Hotel, a student-run cinema (the Bijou Theater), plenty of dining options, the University Book Store and many student organizations. Iowa has close to 500 clubs and organizations so you won’t have a hard time getting involved outside of the classroom here!

16. West Campus Housing
There are many amenities that come with each of the residence halls including free internet, laundry facilities, study rooms and kitchens for students to check out. Petersen is the most recent addition to this neighborhood and was completed in 2015.
   a. Hillcrest
   b. Quadrangle
   c. Rienow
   d. Slater
   e. Petersen
   f. Parklawn

17. College of Nursing Building, 1971
Located on the west side of campus, the nursing program here started in 1898, but officially became its own college in 1949. Now, along with our on-campus program, the College of Nursing also offers continuing education to nurses across the State of Iowa.

18. Iowa’s arts campus
Located in the northwest corner of campus, this area includes the award-winning Art Building West and the Theatre Building.

One-hour tours led by current University of Iowa students are offered weekdays and most Saturday mornings during the academic year. These tours take off from the Admission Visitors Center located on the first floor of the Pomerantz Center. Please call us at 319-335-1569 to help set up your official visit!
